

UNDERGRADUATE NEWSLETTER

CONNECT WITH US!

WOMEN'S WEEK AT THE U

March 18th - 22nd

This year's theme, "Untold Stories and Everyday Heroism," highlights the contributions of individuals who have worked largely out of the spotlight while providing critical advancement toward community progress.

Event details here.

PRIDE WEEK @ THE U

April 1st - 6th

This year's theme: 'Here & Queer: The Pride Renaissance' highlights the vibrancy of the LGBTQ+ community on and around our campus community.

Event details here.

BASIC NEEDS COLLECTIVE

Let's get you what you need.

Food, healthcare, emergency funds, housing, childcare, technology and tutoring, transportation, legal services, and clothing - the Basic Needs Collective is here to help you meet your Basic Needs without judgement.

Connect to resources here.

ANNUAL HISTORY DEPARTMENT CONFERENCE

The Annual Practicing History Conference on April 5th, 2024!

This is a great opportunity to attend an academic conference at your own institution, hear peer research, and listen to acclaimed scholars.

Conference schedule coming soon!

RAMADAN

MARCH 11 - APRIL 9, 2024

OBSERVED BY MUSLIMS AS A MONTH OF FASTING, PRAYER, REFLECTION AND COMMUNITY.

CAMPUS SPACES FOR PRAYER

MEDITATION SPACE (THIRD FLOOR): STUDENT UNION

PRAYER SPACE (SECOND FLOOR): BLACK CULTURAL CENTER

FALL 2024 COURSE SCHEDULE IS NOW AVAILABLE!

SEE WHAT COURSES ARE OFFERED HERE

Check your registration date on CIS and make sure to register in a timely manner.

Your Academic Advisor is here to help!
Schedule an appointment with Amariyls Scott.

Book
Now

ACADEMIC ADVISING
Create. Navigate. Graduate.

UNIVERSITY DATES & DEADLINES

FALL COURSE SCHEDULE AVAILABLE: MARCH 4

SPRING BREAK: MARCH 3-10